1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

The Pontiac Artists' Association acts as an umbrella organization for the Pontiac Artists' Studio Tour, The Pontiac School of the Arts, the Stone School Gallery, and other events and exhibitions. Its mission is to promote, defend and develop the social, artistic and professional interests of its members and to contribute to the cultural development of the Pontiac region of Québec by: disseminating its members' art; providing professional development; fostering relationships and promoting collaboration between artists and local and regional cultural organizations; developing the cultural environment of the region through diverse activities and engagements; and contributing to the development of new audiences for the arts.

The Pontiac Artists' Association was formed under "Lettres Patentes" as a not for profit association on 29 January 2004 according to the "Loi sur les compagnies, Partie III" for the Province of Québec. The association is exempt for income tax purposes, and is a Registered Cultural Organization in the Province of Québec..

2. GRANT ASSISTANCE AND ECONOMIC DEPENDANCE

The association has received most of its funding from grant agencies in past years and therefore is economically dependant upon these agencies for continuous operations.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Receipts and Expenditures

- a) Receipts are recognized on an accrual basis.
- b) Expenditures are recognized on an accrual basis.

Capital assets

The purchases of capital assets by the general fund are recorded as expenses in the year. The association has never reported capital assets in a capital fund and as a net investment in capital assets. No amortization of capital assets is recorded in the financial statements.
